- seek emergency care for the student without obtaining prior consent from the parent/s if this is not practical in the circumstances;
- accept either payment of charges in full or by instalments before the agreed due date; and
- refund amounts paid in advance where the parent/s give 14 days' written advice that the student will leave the college and the Boarding Agreement will terminate.

Suspending the Student or Terminating the Boarding Agreement

The College Manager may suspend the student or terminate the Boarding Agreement if:

Suspending the student from the residential college

If the student is suspended from the residential college, they are unable to reside at the residential college for the duration of the suspension.

The College Manager may suspend the student for up to 21 days if the student breaches the Residential College Code of Conduct. The student and the parent/s are unable to appeal the college manager's decision to suspend the student.

The College Manager will provide the student and the parent/s with written advice:

- that the student is suspended from the college and must leave the college grounds;
- of the reason for the suspension;
- of the date on which the suspension commences;

To terminate the Boarding Agreement, the College Manager will provide the student and the parent/s with written advice:

- that the Boarding Agreement is terminated meaning a residential place will no longer be provided for the student;
- of the reason for the termination;
- of the date on which the termination becomes effective; and
- about how to request a review if they are not satisfied with the College Manager's decision to terminate the Boarding Agreement.

$300 Bond for a Residential Place

Signing the Boarding Agreement means:

- the parent/s pay the bond to secure the residential place for the student;
- the College Manager retains the bond for duration of the Boarding Agreement;
- the bond may be used to compensate the residential college for any outstanding costs or repairing damage the student causes to college property; and
